CHINESE ASTROLOGY BA ZI

BA ZI CHINESE ASTROLOGY

Ba Zi Chinese Astrology, also known as the “Four Pillars of Destiny” is a practical tool for assessing an individual’s life through the Five Elements, Yin/Yang, Ten Stems and Twelve Branches – which shape one’s destiny and direct luck.

Although the structure of each Ba Zi chart appears to be quite simple – just eight characters spread across four pillars – this system is a very layered one. This is mostly because the destiny comes together with luck, and luck changes at certain intervals: every tenth year brings major shifts, every fourth year affects the ten-year luck cycle in specific ways, while each year triggers specific happenings.

Therefore, we experience major changes in our lives with the ending of one decade - and the beginning of another. Our luck also alternates every fourth year with the changing of the “seasons” and is “activated” for good or bad on an annual basis. It is for this reason that we often change our interests and aspirations at specific timeline; this is also when life could bring completely different life experiences and new lectures to learn. We also tend to do things differently at different periods in our life; while some individuals might end their relationship, the other could start a new career. In the same manner, while certain individuals could fight with health issues, the others could be occupied with their new hobbies, changing residence, etc., etc.

Additionally, during specific periods and years of our life, we may gain something new and valuable (from new skills to new friendships or relationship, career, assets, wealth, etc.) – just as we can lose something that is very dear to us. However, since we are being gifted with free will, we make decisions about the course of action we will take at certain time - which will consequently lead to satisfaction or dissatisfaction, happiness or unhappiness, and success or failure.

Sometimes, we can (unfortunately) overlook certain opportunities which do not seem attractive to us at the time – just as we can keep clinging to the same old habits that will lead us nowhere. Due to the influence of certain dynamics, like when we are under the influence of Punishment or Destruction, we can make some bad decisions that could have a lasting influence on our life. Those experienced with Ba Zi already know that the outcomes are predictable - mostly because one’s reactions and choices follow patterns from the natal Chinese Astrology chart and luck cycles.

In the Chinese Ba Zi astrology, there are 12 Zodiac Signs or Branches.

Branches combine with Ten Stems, Five Elements and Yin/Yang, and this is how we get sixty different combinations: sixty distinctive pillars and sixty distinctive personalities. Furthermore, since each pillar of your Ba Zi Chinese Astrology horoscope (Year, Month, Day, and Hour) contains one Zodiac sign, your life is affected by at least four signs.

Most importantly, while each (of the four) Zodiac signs in your chart stand for certain aspect of your life, the most important one is the sign of your day of birth; together with your Self, it shows who you really are. To find the Zodiac sign of the day you were born, as well as the other three signs, you have to calculate your Chinese astrology horoscope. FOUR ZODIAC SIGNS OF YOUR LIFE

HOUR	DAY	MONTH	YEAR
RAT	RABBIT	HORSE	TIGER
INNER WISHES	PERSONALITY	CAREER	WIDER SURROUNDINGS

As you can see, each pillar of the Chinese horoscope stands for specific areas of one's life. For example, the Chinese Zodiac sign of your day of birth is who you really are; it defines your constitution and character, and it talks about your health and love life. The sign in the year pillar shows the wider surroundings, while the month sign refers to your immediate surroundings and career. When it comes to the hour of birth, it is all about the inner wishes and personal creations (including children).

RELATIONSHIP

Whatever Zodiac sign is in the day pillar of your natal Ba Zi chart, it directly affects your constitution, character, health, and love life.

THE LUCK CHANGES EVERY YEAR

Each year is ruled by one of the twelve Chinese Zodiac signs, which alternate in their rulership, following the 12-year cycle (because there are 12 Zodiac signs of the Chinese Zodiac). The Zodiac sign which precedes over a certain year affects all four Zodiac signs of your natal chart. Depending on the relationship of the annual sign and the four signs of your Chinese astrological chart, certain years will act on various aspects of your life in different ways (friendly, neutral, or hostile).

Moreover, since the Stars in each of the twelve Zodiac signs change annually, this also determines the kind of luck each sign will have during certain year (good or bad; average or great). In such a way - minding that there are four Zodiac signs in your chart - while your personal life could be great at certain year (due to the influence of the good Stars on your day pillar), you may simultaneously find yourself dealing with career challenges (because the bad Stars might be concentrated on your career - the month pillar)! The table below shows how the Tiger year affects different pillars of your chart in distinctive ways.

WATER TIGER YEAR OF 2022

When it comes to 2022, it is a Water Tiger Year.

Since Tiger has a good relationship with Horse, Pig, Dog and Ox, these signs will be blessed with good relationship luck in 2022. If you have one of these Chinese Zodiac signs anywhere in your Ba Zi chart, then you should expect improvements in relationships in general. The aspect of your life that will be most influenced depends on the pillar(s) these signs occupy (personal life, career, etc.).

Regarding the signs that do not get along well with Tiger, their relationship luck might be still good, but not as much.

Relationships-wise, the signs that have bad relationship with Tiger, will be dealing with challenges in 2022.

The first to mention is Monkey, because this sign clashes with Tiger (equals to opposition in Western astrology). Thus, if you were born under the day of Monkey, 2022 will bring health and relationship challenges. In addition, if you were born in the Monkey month (August), you may have troubles with people from work. Since every Clash bring inevitable changes, knowing this you can start planning how to initiate the changes - to maintain control over the flow. In professional consultations, we always advise our clients to not only embrace the necessity of change, but also to plan and initiate the changes accordingly. One example of such changes is accepting a position which requires a lots of travel...

The other Zodiac signs that have bad relationship with Tiger will also experience challenges, primarily - Snake. Check your Ba Zi for any of the two signs (Monkey, Snake), and if you have one or both in your chart, then get ready to be misunderstood and misinterpreted; also be careful not to be used for other people's purposes!

Ba Zi Chinese Astrology, also known as the "Four Pillars of Destiny" is a practical tool for assessing an individual's life through the Five Elements, Yin/Yang, Ten Stems and Twelve Branches – which shape one's destiny and direct luck.

PART 3

TWELVE ZODIAC SIGNS AND THEIR LUCK IN 2022

The twelve signs' luck is based both on their relationship with Tiger and the presence of specific Stars, both auspicious and inauspicious in each sign during the course of 2022.

TIGER

Although 2022 is the Tiger year, Tiger does not have any other benefit of being the king – but the title of the ‘Grand Duke’.

In Chinese Astrology, being the Grand Duke means that the sign will be dealing with challenges, setbacks, and obstacles. In which area of one’s life will these happen, depends on the pillar where the Tiger is positioned in one’s natal Ba Zi chart (also known as Chinese horoscope).

On the bright side, the presence of the so-called Intelligence Star in the Tiger sign indicates good things. For example, it makes those with the Tiger in their chart more resourceful, agile, and creative. It is especially usable for those born in February (Tiger month), because they will be able to monetize their knowledge and put their ideas into action – that can aid to their career and/or business.

The other star in Tiger sign tells us that Tigers will be interested in everything life has to offer, from going out to enjoying in good company and fine food. In other words, they will be in a pretty hedonistic state of mind during the course of 2022...

When it comes to Tigers’ love luck in 2022, it is rather average - though better for the Tigers who also have Horse or Rabbit in their chart (their Chinese horoscope). Of all five Tigers, male Metal Tigers should count on a very good love luck, while female Earth Tigers will have a lot of opportunities to spice up their love life.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 does not offer great career or wealth opportunities for Tigers (except for Metal and Water Tigers). Also, better prospects and more chances will have all those with rabbit or Horse in their chart. Check your Ba Zi chart for other Zodiac signs; if you have Rabbit, Horse or Goat there, then your wealth luck will be very good!

- If you want to boost your career/wealth, you can use Feng Shui!

What should Tigers pay attention to in 2022?

The first thing that comes in mind is - health. One Star in the Tiger sign tells us that those with this Zodiac sign in their Ba Zi chart should pay attention to their immunity, and digestion, thus altering the lifestyle accordingly. Importantly, planning dental, Lasix, and/or cosmetic procedures might be a good move for Tigers in 2022.

The other thing they should pay attention to are relationships because they will be under the influence of the star that bring issues caused by malicious people and gossip.

* One Star also warns Tigers to restrain from travelling a great distance.

Tigers and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. Favorable locations in 2022 for business are Northeast and South, while the best personal direction for love is Southeast.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Tigers

When it comes to Wood Tigers, relationships will be their real challenge in 2022, because they will be dealing with a lot of animosity. While Water Tigers will be very creative and busy, in general and with helping others, Fire Tigers' intuition and instincts will be sharpened; they should use 2022 to work on themselves and upgrade their knowledge. Earth Tigers will be dealing with a lot of stress and pressure, while Metal Tigers might will be occupied with wealth, and career, while also considering a business expansion.

YOU WERE BORN IN TIGER YEAR:	Pay attention to family members' health.
YOU WERE BORN IN TIGER MONTH:	Possible issues with boss and authorities in general. Work on improving your knowledge and skills.
YOU WERE BORN IN TIGER DAY:	2022 can bring health issues, and relationship challenges.
YOU WERE BORN IN TIGER HOUR:	Consider mastering a new knowledge or skills; commit to yours or your child's education.

RABBIT

2022 is important year for Rabbits, their luck will significantly improve!

Due to the support of the three strong auspicious stars, one great year awaits those with Rabbit Zodiac sign in their Ba Zi chart (their Chinese astrology horoscope).

The first auspicious star makes people attractive and popular; this star will also benefit Rabbits' social life, improving their love luck and accentuating their artistic tendencies. Under the influence of this star people often better their overall appearance, from hair and clothes - all the way to the physical fitness. This star is especially great news for single Rabbits, interested in dating and romance (it brings opportunities).

The other star in Rabbits' sign is a Nobleman Star, which is all about giving and receiving (although in Rabbits' case, it will be more about giving). In such a way, since Rabbits will acquire others' ais more easily, they should not hesitate to ask for whatever they might need in 2022. However, they should be also ready to provide their own advice, guidance, and aid, because their evaluation and help will be much sought after.

Due to the influx of the Yang energy of another great star, the Tai Yang Star, Rabbits should expect one dynamic year. At this time, they will feel strong, energetic, and more confident - while the overall development in their life will be smooth. This star will also positively affect their health, and stabilizing their mood, aiding to their stamina and happiness.

Career & wealth wise, since the presentation and personalization are the keys to business success in 2022, Rabbits should promote both themselves and their business (this will work especially well for those in social media, sales, and networking businesses). The Tiger year also favors Rabbits who need (male) benefactors and those whose business is based on their looks or personality (like influencers). In addition, 2022 is a great time for getting promotion, and growing own business (the overall atmosphere is auspicious for everything related to power, electricity, solar energy, telecommunications, IT, metaphysics, inspiration, and motivation, but also male related business (like car industry, male fashion, etc.).

When it comes to Rabbits' love life in 2022, since their love luck is improving, they won't lack opportunities to date and establish a relationship. As the matter of fact, the single ones should make an effort to use the Tiger year to find love, since the door for romance is wide open!

What should Rabbits pay attention to in 2022?

They should enjoy the good tides and they should spend time socializing, and with their friends and family. However, they should be also careful when it comes to dealing with others, being aware of the possible disputes.

Rabbits and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Rabbits should use Southeast of their home, or they should move their bed to the Southeast part of their bedroom. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for deep rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Rabbits

When it comes to Wood Rabbits, the simplest way to succeed is to follow others' lead. Water Rabbits will be very productive and efficient (it's a good time for the fresh start), and their pace will be pretty hectic. Regarding Fire Rabbits, they will have more relationship opportunities, and some of them could even transform their life for good in the Water Tiger year. Earth Rabbits will be dealing with a lots of pressure (females will be also busy with love and relationship opportunities), while Metal Rabbits will be occupied with finding the best ways to make use of the wealth chances.

 Find more detailed info about Wood Tiger, Fire Tiger, Earth Tiger, Metal Tiger and Water Tiger – and their luck in the upcoming years! Consult your personal astrologer, read Althea's series of texts "SIXTY PERSONALITIES OF CHINESE ASTROLOGY" (60 e-books!).

BORN IN RABBIT YEAR:	Your guidance might be very much sought after in your surroundings.
BORN IN RABBIT MONTH:	2022 is a great time for networking, and mentoring others.
BORN IN RABBIT DAY:	Favorable for romance and relationships in general.
BORN IN RABBIT HOUR:	The time is right to pursue the dreams!

DRAGON

Dragon's luck will be inconsistent in 2022; due to the lack of auspicious stars in their sign, their fortunes will oscillate from average to reasonably good. Thus, Dragons should not rely on the luck in 2020, but they should proceed carefully, keeping their ambitions in check. Since Tiger is also their Travelling Star, they will still have a busy year.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 doesn't show any significant growth or outstanding wealth opportunities for Dragons - except for those in real estate business. Therefore, Dragons should be patient, as they should keep low profile, completing existing projects, and having a long-term perspective in mind (not a good time for short-term projects and goals). However, some Dragons will do better than the others (they will have more opportunities): those with Monkey, Rooster or Snake in their chart.

Relationships wise, the Tiger Year will not bring new opportunities for singles, and although their love life tends to be average, it will be still better for those with Horse, Monkey or Rooster in their chart. On the other hand, certain stars in Dragon sign indicate alienation or estrange from the people in their surroundings, suggesting the end of some relationships (with whom depends on where the Dragon can be found in their Ba Zi Chinese astrology chart).

Regarding their health, although it tends to be stable, they should still beware of injuries, as they should restrain from putting themselves into danger. Dragons should be also very careful when handling tools, as they should make sure to stay away from climbing high mountains. Regarding their overall state of mind, emotional turbulence and mood swings are likely.

What should Dragons pay attention to in 2022?

Since the time is not right for chasing ambitions and pursuing big goals, Dragons should be moderate with their ambitions, focusing on the ways to exploit what is already there.

Dragons and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Dragons should use Southeast of their home, or they should move their bed to the Southeast part of their bedroom. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for rest they should sleep in Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Dragons

When it comes to Wood Dragons, relationships will be their real challenge in 2022, as they will be dealing with jealousy and hostility. While Water Dragons will be busy with new goals and projects, Fire Dragons will have the opportunity to work on themselves. Earth Dragons will be dealing with a lot of stress and pressure, and Metal Dragons will be occupied with their wealth, career, and business.

YOU WERE BORN IN DRAGON YEAR:	Feeling alienated from the environment will be common this year.
YOU WERE BORN IN DRAGON MONTH:	The Tiger Year is not a great time for changing career or business expansion.
YOU WERE BORN IN DRAGON DAY:	Every relationship goes through ups and downs.
YOU WERE BORN IN DRAGON HOUR:	2022 is not the best year to chase the dreams.

To find the Zodiac sign of the day you were born, as well as the other three signs, you have to calculate your Chinese astrology horoscope. Here is the link to the free online calculator:

SNAKE

Snake's overall luck in 2022 will be very good, due to the influence of some auspicious stars in this Zodiac sign. However, 2022 also brings some challenges, that arise from the complex relationship with the Tiger.

When it comes the good stars, the Nobleman Star will now help Snakes to benefit from others' presence, guidance, and help. This star attracts the good will people, who will provide Snakes with advice, information, support, and practical help; their assistance can ease Snakes' life and make certain accomplishments possible. Minding that particularly strong support in 2022 comes from females, Snakes should turn to female figures in their surroundings for everything they might need.

However, due to the effect of Harm and Punishment, they should be alert and cautious in all their dealings, because betrayal issues and situations where the Snakes can be used for others' promotion and success are likely to emerge. Therefore, it is very important that they read the small letters in every contract and that they do not rely on promises.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 brings good tides and opportunities for Snakes to advance – mostly with a help of others. The overall atmosphere is favorable for their finances, but it benefits more the female oriented businesses (like fashion and cosmetics). The Tiger year is a great time for investors and entrepreneurs, because their instincts and intuition will be strong.

When it comes to Snakes' love life in 2022, it will be reasonably good. Those in relationship may find their partner very helpful, but there will be also some lingering relationship issues they should pay attention to. Besides, Snakes could make their relationship more complicated than it has to be, by isolating from the loved ones and letting own anxiety and bad temper to take a toll on the relationship.

Regarding their health, since physical injuries are possible now, Snakes should be cautious when it comes to extreme sports, dangerous situations, and getting involved into physical fights. Furthermore, Snakes with Pig and/or Tiger in their chart should be alert and cautious in traffic, especially in February and November. The Tiger year is a good time to pay attention to own bad habits.

What should Snakes pay attention to in 2022?

In 2022, everything is about others, who will be not only giving, but who could also use Snakes for own agenda. Hence, Snakes' lessons in the Tiger Year are about honesty, alertness and checking facts. Snakes should be also very careful with their belongings, due to the increased possibility of theft and fraud. Minding that they will be quarrelsome and forgetful, Snakes should work on establishing the inner peace (meditation, yoga, etc.), as well as practicing mindfulness.

Snakes and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Snakes should use Southeast of their home, or they should move their bed to the Southeast part of their bedroom. For more energy, Snakes should spend time in South, and for rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Snakes

When it comes to Wood Snakes, they will have to fight for own visibility and invest a lot of effort in order to accomplish their goals. While Water Snakes will be super busy with their ideas and projects, Fire Snakes will be occupied with relationship opportunities. Earth Snakes will be busy with relationships, status, and reputation, while Metal Snakes will be focused mainly on business and wealth.

 Find more detailed info about Wood Tiger, Fire Tiger, Earth Tiger, Metal Tiger and Water Tiger – and their luck in the upcoming years! Consult your personal astrologer, read Althea's series of texts "SIXTY PERSONALITIES OF CHINESE ASTROLOGY" (60 e-books!).

YOU WERE BORN IN SNAKE YEAR:	You will find your surroundings very helpful, with occasional strikes of hostility.
YOU WERE BORN IN SNAKE MONTH:	Auspicious year for entrepreneurs and those who work with people (especially females).
YOU WERE BORN IN SNAKE DAY:	The time is favorable to date and/or socialize more.
YOU WERE BORN IN SNAKE HOUR:	Others can help you to realize some of your dreams.

HORSE

Tiger year of 2022 will work great for Horses; they will feel good about themselves, and they will be enthusiastic, energetic, and confident. Furthermore, since they will be at good terms with people, others will be more eager to help Horses' progress and goals achievement.

Great relationship with the Tiger will positively affect Horse's social life and popularity. Since people will just love being with them, they will have numerous opportunities to expand their circles. The overall atmosphere in 2022 will also benefit singles who will have more chances to date and establish a relationship (especially Metal Horses).

Career and wealth wise, since 2022 brings a wealth star to their sign, Horses will be able to advance in their career and upgrade their status. The Water Tiger year is also favorable for moving, travels, changing environment or - career. The overall atmosphere will support everything sales and networking related, but also marketing, advisory, and PR. In addition, the year of the Tiger will benefit Horse's authority and power, hence this is a good time for their recognition and reputation. However, in order to make the most out of 2022, Horses should take on the leadership position, not restraining from bold and brave action.

When it comes to Horses' love life in 2022, there will be plenty of relationship opportunities. While singles should use this unique opportunity to meet new people and date more, the time is also great for the married ones to enjoy their relationship.

In regard to their health, Horses born in spring and summer might have issues with inflammations, and digestion. Since they are prone to injuries and accidents, they should be careful in movement and while handling tools.

What should Horses pay attention to in 2022?

Despite the good relationship luck in 2022, some stars in the Horse sign indicate backstabbing, and unrest. Jealousy can cause gossip, which can harm their reputation, requiring in certain cases even a legal action. Importantly, Horses should be careful with documents, reading well every line before signing.

Horses and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Horses should use Southeast of their home, or they should move their bed to the Southeast part of their bedroom. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for rest they should aim for Northeast.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Horses

When it comes to Wood Horses, they will be dealing with rivalry, jealousy and animosity. While Water Horses will be very artistic and creative, they should pay attention not to exaggerate with food and other ways of self-indulgence. The easiest way for Fire Horses to succeed is with their knowledge and the help of others, while Earth Horses should be careful because they will be dealing with tough environment and a lot of pressure. Regarding Metal Horses, they will have some great opportunities to expand their business and make profits.

YOU WERE BORN IN HORSE YEAR:	Active environment and a lot of social interactions.
YOU WERE BORN IN HORSE MONTH:	2022 presents career and business opportunities. The time is right to show your leadership abilities.
YOU WERE BORN IN HORSE DAY:	Since the relationship luck is very good now, singles should go out and date more.
YOU WERE BORN IN HORSE HOUR:	You will be enthusiastic towards pursuing your dreams and fulfilling the desires.

THEIR RELATIONSHIP LUCK IN 2022

Snake (getting advice & help)

Dog, Horse (popularity, fame & networking)

Rabbit (giving & helping others)

GOAT

In 2022, Goats will find themselves on the auspicious side.

They will feel good about their life, and they will be at good terms with others - who will be eager to provide them with support, guidance, and help.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 is particularly auspicious for transactions that involve properties (also government issued stocks). Since the overall atmosphere is favorable for their status and reputation, a promotion is possible - especially for Goats who have Rabbit in the month pillar of their Ba Zi Chinese Astrology chart. 2022 also supports entrepreneurs, particularly those born in May, who won't lack business opportunities. One star in their sign also works well for authors, journalists, and those in education, who should pursue their goals in 2022. However, Goats should be aware that they will be also fighting with unforeseen expenses, hence they should pay attention to their spending, limiting unnecessary purchases.

When it comes to Goats' love life, 2022 is moderately good for romance. Better relationship fortune comes with the Rabbit year of 2023.

Regarding their health, Goats should invest their time and energy in the ways to improve their health (and not only theirs but of the elderly family members, too), especially when there is an Ox, Rat or Tiger in their chart.

What should Goats pay attention to in 2022?

They should definitely pay attention to their spending and expenses in general. Their extravagance in spending, and unwise monetary strategy (or the lack of one) may lead to the grave regrets.

Goats and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. Health-wise, Goats should avoid sleeping in Southwest during the course of 2022. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Goats

When it comes to Wood Goats, the simplest way for them to overcome hindrances in 2022, is to team up with others. While Water Goats will be very active and productive, Fire Goats will be busy with relationship and their personal growth and transformation. Earth Goats will be tense and anxious, but they will also have opportunities to get support from the people in position. Metal Goats will be occupied with career, and wealth.

YOU WERE BORN IN GOAT YEAR:	Your overall relationship luck is good.
YOU WERE BORN IN GOAT MONTH:	The Tiger year is auspicious for Goats in real estate business.
YOU WERE BORN IN GOAT DAY:	Relationship-wise, 2022 is especially favorable for Fire and Water Goat females.
YOU WERE BORN IN GOAT HOUR:	Don’t overspend on your hobbies and chasing the dreams.

THEIR HEALTH IN 2022

Ox
(digestion & chronic ailments)

Rat
(stress related)

Tiger
(immunity issues)

MONKEY

Since 2022 comes with Clash, Monkeys will feel at unrest both with themselves and the world around them (particularly Fire Monkeys). Minding that the Year of the Water Tiger comes with challenges, and disruptions, it might be hard to predict any certain development. Since there will be opposition and hostility in the close environment, Monkeys might be busy solving communication issues, settling personal disputes, and fixing sudden problems. Instability and occasional chaos in their personal life and career will be accompanied with their restlessness, bad mood, and temper outbursts; all these can cause problems hard to solve. The clash with the year delivers obstacles and halts, as it can also bring loss of something or someone important (to name only the inner peace); what will be changed or lost depends on which pillar of the Ba Zi chart Monkey occupies.

Therefore, interesting year filled with happenings, excitement and stress waits for the Monkeys. Luckily, there are also some auspicious stars in their sign, that will bring help with difficult situations and resolving possible conflicts. As they will be inspired to learn, Monkeys should consider writing, studying something new, or getting a degree. Also, travels are important this year, because they represent necessary change, helping Monkeys to live the better lives.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 brings a lot of activity, and it is especially beneficial for salesmen, soldiers, diplomats, and business owners whose focus is on foreign countries. Although the Tiger Year will be good for Monkey's status, recognition, and fame, they might also consider change of career (particularly those born in Monkey month - August). Their wealth luck will be reasonably good, but better for those with Rabbit or Goat in their chart, and also consultants, and those in education. However, tough they will be creative, Monkeys should keep their ambitions in check now, because their expenses are likely to rocket high. Hence, they should count on covering sudden expenses, as they should be very conservative when it comes to big investments.

When it comes to Monkeys' love life in 2022, it tends to be unstable - but better for long-distance relationship. If their relationship was troublesome and if they were already in discord with their partner, they should definitely consider therapy, because the chances are high that their relationship may reach the breaking point in 2022. For singles, a new relationship is possible.

In regard to their health, Monkeys should be very alert and cautious in movement and traffic. (Traffic accidents are possible for those whose chart shows that possibility). They should also take care of the security of their car, bicycle, or other vehicle.

What should Monkeys pay attention to in 2022?

They should definitely pay attention to their expenses! Minding that the Tiger Year brings instability and possible losses, they should restrain from making impulsive decisions when it comes to money. When it comes to advice on how to make the most out of 2022, three words come in mind: careful, alert, and cautious.

Monkeys and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Monkeys should use Southeast of their home, or they should move their bed to the Southeast part of their bedroom. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Monkeys

When it comes to Wood Monkeys, relationships will be their real challenge in 2022 (they will be dealing with a lot of animosity). While Water Monkeys will be very creative and busy, Fire Monkeys will have a boost of intuition, and their instincts will be sharpened (although they might be also fighting with anxiety). For Earth Monkeys, the Tiger Year will bring stress and pressure, while Metal Monkeys will be occupied with wealth, career, and business expansion.

 Find more detailed info about Wood Tiger, Fire Tiger, Earth Tiger, Metal Tiger and Water Tiger – and their luck in the upcoming years! Consult your personal astrologer, read Althea's series of texts "SIXTY PERSONALITIES OF CHINESE ASTROLOGY" (60 e-books!).

YOU WERE BORN IN MONKEY YEAR:	Busy surroundings and possible arguments with neighbors.
YOU WERE BORN IN MONKEY MONTH:	Favorable for salesmen, diplomats, travel agents, and international trade.
YOU WERE BORN IN MONKEY DAY:	Relationship challenges are likely; find the ways to implement changes in the relationship.
YOU WERE BORN IN MONKEY HOUR:	This year, be careful with investment (extra costs and losses are probable).

ROOSTER

Although 2022 will not deliver many good stars to Rooster sign, a couple of strong ones will still enable them to have one good year (although it will be better for those with Snake, Goat or Horse in their chart). Minding that the year of 2023 brings Clash (strain and changes) to their sign, Roosters should make use of every opportunity that the Year of Tiger presents.

For Roosters, 2022 will not bring too many important happenings, or big changes. However, one strong auspicious star in their sign will help them with their career, business, and wealth, while another one will provide them with support of some strong and wise individuals, who can aid to Roosters' status and authority.

When it comes to overall development in their lives, 2022 brings slowing down. This tendency is useful because it can help Roosters to rest properly - and correct their action. Relationships wise, occasional communication breakdown is likely; hence they should be careful in all interactions, making sure to clarify everything and resolve potential issues in calm and relaxed ways.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 brings Roosters a success star, that is good for reputation, career, wealth, and business. This star is a great helper when it comes to overcoming obstacles and getting support from influential people. Although the overall development in 2022 is not too smooth or very fast, it is still very promising for business and wealth.

When it comes to Roosters' love life in 2022, this is a good time for romance, and it brings happy events. However, although the Tiger Year can deliver opportunities for Roosters interested in romance and sex, those already in relationship should be careful, because flirting and failing to control the urge for adventure can explode into scandal.

In regard to their health, Tiger year is great for Roosters to rest, take their time and commit to own emotional healing. If they have Ox somewhere in their chart, then they should pay special attention to their lifestyle and physical activity.

What should Roosters pay attention to in 2022?

Despite their good luck, the Tiger year is not great for Roosters' image. Therefore, they should pay attention to possible misunderstandings and relationships issues. They should be also cautious with their belongings, because of the increased theft and robbery possibilities. They should think about their reputation when it comes to decision making - because it is easy to lose the trust of the coworkers now.

Roosters and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. For the Roosters who want to improve their love luck, Southeast is a great location for their bed (Southeast of their home or bedroom). For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Roosters

When it comes to Wood Roosters, they might be dealing with hostility, and ruthless competition in 2022. While Water Roosters won't lack ideas for growth and expansion, Fire Roosters might be busy with yoga, meditation, reading, or therapy. Earth Roosters will find themselves occupied with relationships, while Metal Roosters will receive support and help from others, that will aid to their career, business, and wealth growth.

 Find more detailed info about Wood Tiger, Fire Tiger, Earth Tiger, Metal Tiger and Water Tiger – and their luck in the upcoming years! Consult your personal astrologer, read Althea's series of texts "SIXTY PERSONALITIES OF CHINESE ASTROLOGY" (60 e-books!).

YOU WERE BORN IN ROOSTER YEAR:	You may find powerful contacts in the surroundings, willing to help you succeed.
YOU WERE BORN IN ROOSTER MONTH:	It is a good time for career, reputation, power, and wealth.
YOU WERE BORN IN ROOSTER DAY:	The time is great to enjoy dating, sex, and romance.
YOU WERE BORN IN ROOSTER HOUR:	You can get help in fulfilling your dreams.

PROBLEM SOLVING
Monkey
(problem solvers of the year)

DOG

For Dogs, 2022 might be a very good year, mostly due to a great relationship with the Tiger, that will positively affect Dogs' social life, bringing a lot of interactions and expanding their circles. Furthermore, Tiger year brings good connections and strong "people luck", when opportunities come through others and with their help. Accordingly, Dogs can benefit in 2022 from the advice and guidance provided by their contacts, as from the increase of their own popularity and fame. However, although the Tiger Year will work great on their connections and relationships, Dogs will also meet some troublemakers, as they will be dealing with jealousy and hostility (even within the family). In such a way, they should be alert, and cautious when it comes to expressing their opinion in public.

The presence of the Art Star in their sign is especially good news for designers and all those in creative businesses. Since the Dogs won't lack inspiration or ideas, all these will favorably impact their overall progress (this star will work best for those who are either born under the day of Dog, or who were born in the Dog month - October).

Career & wealth wise, 2022 brings opportunities through socializing and networking. The Tiger Year will benefit mostly the Dogs in media, social networks, fashion, photography, design, and art, bringing them popularity and fame.

When it comes to Dogs' love life, 2022 improves their love luck, bringing relationship opportunities; therefore, singles should socialize and date more, in order to make use of the favorable circumstances. To further boost their love luck, Dogs can follow the Feng Shui advice for 2022.

In regard to their health, Dogs should primarily beware of injuries in physical activities, and possible cuts by metal objects. In addition, 2022 is not favorable for medical procedures (unless necessary), as it holds a danger from water. Since their health is not at its highest in the Tiger year, Dogs should alter their diet adequately, in order to avoid digestion issues and poor sleep.

What should Dogs pay attention to in 2022?

They should definitely make use of their connections, as they should engage in improving their visual identity. In such a way, since it is easier to acquire fame and recognition now, they should adjust their strategy accordingly. However, they should be also aware that there will be some haters dragging around, who might try to make their life complicated.

Dogs and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Dogs should place their bed in the Southeast of their home - or bedroom. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for North-east. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Dogs

When it comes to Wood Dogs, relationships will be their real challenge, because 2022 brings strong rivalry and animosity. While Water Dogs will be very creative and busy, in general and with helping others, Fire Dogs' intuition, and instincts will be sharpened – as they might be inspired to acquire some new knowledge. Earth Dogs will be dealing with a lot of stress and pressure, while Metal Dogs will be busy with wealth, career, and business expansion.

 Find more detailed info about Wood Tiger, Fire Tiger, Earth Tiger, Metal Tiger and Water Tiger – and their luck in the upcoming years! Consult your personal astrologer, read Althea's series of texts "SIXTY PERSONALITIES OF CHINESE ASTROLOGY" (60 e-books!).

YOU WERE BORN IN DOG YEAR:	Since people from the surroundings will show a lot of sympathy for Dogs, this will bring them an active social life.
YOU WERE BORN IN DOG MONTH:	Auspicious for sales and networking. Especially good for designers and artists.
YOU WERE BORN IN DOG DAY:	2022 is favorable for dating, relationship, and marriage.
YOU WERE BORN IN DOG HOUR:	Others can help you to fulfill your dreams.

PIG

The Year of Tiger brings mixed luck to Pigs.

On one hand, due to the favorable connection with Tiger, 2022 will affect positively Pigs' relationships, bringing them opportunities to socialize. Since others will show more sympathy for them, Pigs will be also able to meet benefactors and get an aid in pursuing their goals.

When it comes to their energy and mood, they will feel good about themselves, and they will feel even better if they manage to find the activities that makes them happy. However, a Destruction with the Tiger also points out to relationship issues, incidents, disturbing gossip, and slander. Also, since the Robbery Star in their sign indicates losses, Pigs should stay away from lending money (unrealistic expectations = problems + losses), as they should be careful with personal belongings. If they haven't done it already, it may be a good time to install the alarm system, or to check the existing one.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 brings popularity and opportunities to grow and move forward. Those with Pig in their month pillar (born in November) will have opportunity to create something new and team up with others towards achieving the common goal. Although the Tiger year is particularly auspicious for Pigs in education and literature, minding the influence of the Destruction, all Pigs should be careful when signing agreements and contracts. Because of the Robbery Star, they should also stay away from huge investments and 'get quick rich' schemes, because 2022 is not a good time for such things.

When it comes to Pigs' love life, 2022 will bring opportunities to singles. However, all those in serious relationship should be aware that the time is right to work on their communication skills (because the existing issues may intensify).

In regard to their health, Pigs will have tendency to worry too much, as they might be also fighting with unrest and anxiety. They should be careful in movement, because their recklessness and carelessness can lead to minor accidents and injuries.

What should Pigs pay attention to in 2022?

Pigs should bear in mind that 2022 is important year for them, when they should engage into finding personal satisfaction and fulfillment. They should be also aware that the time is right to address some destructive habits and tendency to indulge themselves.

Pigs and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Pigs should spend time in the Southeast of their home, or they should move their bed to the Southeast part of their bedroom. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, ideal location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Pigs

When it comes to Wood Pigs, relationships will be their real challenge in 2022 (animosity). While Water Pigs will be very creative and busy, in general and with helping others, Fire Pigs will be occupied with learning, teaching and/or writing. Earth Pigs will be dealing with a lot of stress and pressure, while Metal Pigs might will be busy with wealth, career, and business expansion.

YOU WERE BORN IN PIG YEAR:	Be careful in movement and while in traffic.
YOU WERE BORN IN PIG MONTH:	A new career and wealth opportunities.
YOU WERE BORN IN PIG DAY:	Favorable for a new romance and relationship.
YOU WERE BORN IN PIG HOUR:	The time is right for Pigs to chase what makes them happy and brings fulfillment.

RAT

In 2022, Rats' luck will be at most – average.

The reason for their average luck is mostly due to absence of some strong auspicious stars in their sign, indicating lack of strong opportunities and hindered growth (they just won't be at the right place at the right time). Therefore, for those with the Rat in their chart, their overall luck depends very much on the three other Zodiac signs in their Ba Zi horoscope (their luck is improving with Monkey, and/or Snake). Minding all aforementioned, the best strategy for those with the Rat in their Ba Zi chart is to lay low and keep their ambitions in check. Forcing own goals and pushing desired development might not be only a bad move now – but it could prove to be counter effective.

Since their overall luck is not very strong, or stable, it is safer to take small steps in 2022, and to avoid risky ventures (for each Zodiac sign, they should keep in mind that their overall luck also depends on other Zodiac Signs in their chart, as it depends on their Self).

Career & wealth wise, 2022 is not the ideal time for promotion and growth of wealth – except for Water Rats and those born in the months of Rabbit, Snake, Monkey or Goat. Since opening a new path or pursuing greater goals might be hard in 2022, it is better to stick to what is already there and to think long term business wise.

When it comes to Rats' love life in 2022, they should stay away from complicated situations, especially with Rooster in their chart. For those in a lasting relationship, everything will be as per usual; single ones can improve their love luck with Feng Shui.

Regarding their health, Rats should invest more energy into keeping themselves fit and healthy. Also, they should be careful when handling tools.

What should Rats pay attention to in 2022?

Minding the lack of the auspicious stars, Rats should be careful when it comes to legal matters. They should pay their taxes in time, as they should sort out their debts, while being cautious about agreements, and signing contracts (due to the threat of legal repercussions).

Rats and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. To improve their love luck, Rats should sleep in the Southeast of their home or the bedroom; they can also turn the headboard towards Southeast direction. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for Northeast.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Rats

When it comes to Wood Rats, they will be dealing with strong competition in 2022, as they will be facing animosity. Water Rats will be very busy, creative, and productive, and they could find their purpose and direction now - especially if there is Monkey in their chart. Since Fire Rats could benefit from research, science, and education, they should invest their time and energy in these fields. Female Earth Rats will find the Tiger year of 2022 beneficial for relationship (a lot of opportunities for romance), while male Earth Rats will be dealing with a lot of pressure. Metal Rats will be occupied with their career and wealth, especially those born in December.

 Find more detailed info about Wood Tiger, Fire Tiger, Earth Tiger, Metal Tiger and Water Tiger – and their luck in the upcoming years! Consult your personal astrologer, read Althea’s series of texts ”SIXTY PERSONALITIES OF CHINESE ASTROLOGY” (60 e-books!).

YOU WERE BORN IN RAT YEAR:	People from the surroundings won’t be open to Rat’s ideas.
YOU WERE BORN IN RAT MONTH:	Be modest when it comes to your goals, career, and business; make the most out of what is already there.
YOU WERE BORN IN RAT DAY:	Be careful with flirting because scandals can threaten your relationship.
YOU WERE BORN IN RAT HOUR:	These Rats will lack motivation to pursue their dreams.

OX

Oxen luck is not very strong in 2022, hence they should expect one rather average year.

However, since the Ox has a good relationship with Tiger, their overall relationship luck will be reasonably good. In addition, a Star in their sign that positively affects their attractiveness, will make Oxen feeling good about themselves. Therefore, singles won't lack opportunities for romancing, while others will be enjoying the existing relationship.

Career & wealth wise, 2022 requires that Oxen double their effort – to accomplish the average results. The overall atmosphere is better for those who work for salary; entrepreneurs will fight with halts and obstacles. (Secret alliances may work well for them at this time). Better career prospects and stronger wealth opportunities will have those Oxen with Snake or Rabbit in their chart.

When it comes to Ox's love life in 2022, singles won't lack opportunities to romance. However, one star in their sign could make Oxen feeling lonely and alienated; isolating themselves from the partner is not a solution, because it inhibits intimacy, damaging the relationship in the long run. Therefore, Oxen should make an effort to communicate with their partner and to enjoy at least one activity per week together (a simple one hour walk in the nature, common therapy sessions or a day in a spa will do a job).

What should Ox pay attention to in 2022?

For Oxen, the most important thing in the Water Tiger Year is their – health. Minding the presence of the Illness star in their sign, Oxen should perform a full health screening, as they should pay attention to their lifestyle and immunity. Regarding their diet, they should consult nutritionist, consider going to acupuncture, naturopathic treatments or hiring a personal trainer, who will help them build the stamina.

Ox and Feng Shui in 2022

You can always use Feng Shui to improve your luck in certain year. The basic rule is to avoid specific locations and directions, and to focus on employing the most beneficial ones, that will target whatever you think needs improvement: health, relationship, wealth, etc. When it comes to Oxen, they should definitely avoid sleeping in Southwest during the course of 2022, as they should avoid Southwest for their sleeping direction. For more energy, they should spend time in South, and for the deep rest they should aim for Northeast. For authority, the best location in 2022 is Northwest.

Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal & Water Oxen

When it comes to Wood Oxen, they can most easily progress by following trends and others' footsteps (partnership is also not a bad idea). While female Water Oxen will be busy with their offspring and/or some creative endeavors, Fire Oxen will have a secret help to find a way to show their qualities and shine. Earth Oxen will be dealing with overpowering circumstances, a lot of obligations and unfinished business, while Metal Oxen might will be occupied with fighting for their share of wealth.
